

Jesus Greeted As King

One day,

Jesus learned that his friend Lazarus had died. He went to visit the sisters of Lazarus, Mary and Martha, and asked where Lazarus was buried. When they showed Jesus the tomb, Jesus called for the dead man to come out, and he did! It was a miracle!

By the next day, many people had heard about Lazarus, and Jesus. They wanted to see Jesus. Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. He found a young ass and sat upon it. People, including children, took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel."

Thinking About God's Word . . . John 12:1-18

1. Jesus heard that His friend had died. What was His friend's name?
2. What did Jesus do when He was shown to the tomb?
3. The next day Jesus was on a journey. Where was He going?
4. Many people wanted to see Jesus. Children were there, too. Can you find the two small figures in the icon? They represent the children.
5. When we celebrate Palm Sunday, what do we hold in our hands?

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Next week

Christ Is Risen!
Indeed He Is Risen!

Coloring page

Jesus Greeted As King

Six days before Passover,

in Bethany, our Lord Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead. Then, his family made supper for Him. Martha served it and Lazarus was at the table with Him. Mary, the other sister in the family, took a pound of expensive perfume. She poured it all over Jesus' feet, then wiped His feet with her hair. The whole house smelled so nice!

Jesus' disciple Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed Jesus, rudely said, "Why wasn't that perfume sold. The money could have been given to poor people." (He did not really care about poor people—he just wanted the money in Jesus' money box, so he could steal it.)

Jesus told him, "You will always have poor people with you, but you won't always have me here!"

After that, a lot of Jewish people came. They wanted to see Jesus. They also wanted to see Lazarus, to see if he was really alive! The chief priests decided to kill Lazarus since, because of him, many Jews were believing in Jesus.

The next day, many people heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. They took branches from palm trees and waved them to honor Him. They said, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"

They kept saying this as Jesus rode by them, on the foal of a donkey, all the way to Jerusalem. Not until much later did Jesus' disciples realize that the prophets had told what would happen on this day!

Thinking About God's Word . . . John 12:1-18

1. What did Jesus do in Bethany, six days before Passover?
2. After they had supper together, what did Mary do? Do you think that was nice? Why or why not?
3. Did Judas think it was nice? Why or why not?
4. Where did Jesus go the next day?
5. As He went, the people called Jesus "the King of Israel." What did they do to show honor to Him?
6. When you go to Divine Liturgy, listen closely. Do you hear the words that the people said to Jesus when He came near them on that day? We say (or sing) those words too, as He comes near to us!

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Next week

Christ Is Risen!
Indeed He Is Risen!

Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem

Six days before Passover,

Jesus came to Bethany, where Laz'arus who had died was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Laz'arus was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

But Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, one of his disciples (he who was to betray Jesus), said, "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it. Jesus said, "Let her alone, let her keep it for the day of my burial. The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me."

When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Laz'arus, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Laz'arus also to death, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"

And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!"

His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him.

The crowd that had been with him when he called Laz'arus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

Thinking About God's Word . . . John 12:1-18

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| 1. Who was Jesus having supper with at the beginning of this Gospel? | 4. What happened the next day? | there? The re-awakened Laz'arus? Serving Martha? Adoring Mary? |
| 2. What does Mary do to Jesus? Why do you think she does this? | 5. Why did so many people come to meet Jesus on that day? | Selfish Judas? Scheming chief priests? Or curious crowd members? Why? |
| 3. Who criticizes Mary's action? | 6. Who in this Gospel do you think you would have been, if you were | |

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Next week
In the Beginning

Palm Sunday
John 12:1-18

Grades: Middle School
April 20, 2008

Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem

Six days before Passover,

Jesus came to Bethany, where Laz'arus who had died was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Laz'arus was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

But Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, one of his disciples (he who was to betray Jesus), said, "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it. Jesus said, "Let her alone, let her keep it for the day of my burial. The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me."

When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Laz'arus, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Laz'arus also to death, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"

And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!"

His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him.

The crowd that had been with him when he called Laz'arus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

Focus questions

1. Where does Jesus come six days before the Passover? Whose home is this?
2. What do we know about Lazarus?
3. What happens when the people learn Jesus is in Bethany? Why do they come and form a great crowd?
4. Why do they want to see Jesus? Why do they want to see Lazarus?
5. Why do you think Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead brought them both so much attention? What do you think the crowds learned about Jesus because he raised Lazarus from the dead?
6. Would you run out to see someone who did this? Why or why not?
7. How are we doing that, running out to see the one who raised Lazarus, today as a community on Palm Sunday?

LET US ATTEND!

Next week: In the Beginning

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Palm Sunday
John 12:1-18

Grades: High School

April 20, 2008

Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem

Six days before Passover,

Jesus came to Bethany, where Laz'arus who had died was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Laz'arus was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

But Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, one of his disciples (he who was to betray Jesus), said, "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it. Jesus said, "Let her alone, let her keep it for the day of my burial. The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me."

When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Laz'arus, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Laz'arus also to death, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"

And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!"

His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him.

The crowd that had been with him when he called Laz'arus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

Focus questions

1. What does the crowd do when they hear that Jesus is coming to Jerusalem?
2. What does Jesus do?
3. What do the disciples think about all of this?
4. What does the text mean when it says "Jesus was glorified?" When was He glorified and how was He glorified?
5. What do the disciples remember when Jesus is glorified?
6. When the text says they remember "that these things had been written of him" it is referring to the Old Testament texts that were quoted earlier. What does this tell you about what the disciples did in order to understand who Jesus was?
7. What does this suggest about faith?
8. Have you ever felt like you don't understand something about God or Jesus?
9. What is this gospel suggesting we need to do in order to come to a place where we can understand? What do you think about that? What is difficult about that? What is helpful about that?

LET US ATTEND!

Next week: In the Beginning

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.