

Bless Them O Lord

Bless them O Lord, bless them O Lord,
Bless them O Lord, the two become one.

There are symbols in the sacrament of holy matrimony.
You've got: rings, candles, crowns, a common cup,
a ceremonial walk; 'cuz you know . .

You gotta talk the talk and walk the walk
Around the Gospel and the Cross.
You gotta talk the talk and walk the walk
Around the Gospel and the Cross.

Christ centered marriage--Christ makes the two become one.
A sacrificial love, the joy of living in God's Son.

Bless them O Lord, bless them O Lord,
Bless them O Lord, the two become one.

“For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother, [too], and he'll be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh,”

We know this to be true.

Bless them O Lord, bless them O Lord,
Bless them O Lord, the two become one.

Man and woman were meant to be together forevermore.
Joined by the Holy Spirit they worship
Christ whom they love and adore.

Bless them O Lord, bless them O Lord,
Bless them O Lord, the two become one.
Bless them O Lord, the two become one.
