

"I Want To See!"

One day, Jesus was walking on the road to Jericho. Many people were with Him. When he was almost at Jericho, His group passed by a man who was blind. The man was sitting by the road, begging for money and food.

The blind man asked the people near him why a crowd was passing them. The people said that Jesus from Nazareth was coming.

Right away, the blind man started shouting, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

The people around the blind man told him to be quiet, but he shouted louder, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

When Jesus got closer, He stopped. He asked that the blind man be brought to Him. When the man got to Jesus, Jesus asked, "What would you like me to do for you?"

The blind man answered, "Lord, I want to see!" Jesus said, "Receive your sight. Because you believed in Me, you are well."

Right away, the man could see! He followed Jesus, praising God. All the people who saw it also praised God!

Thinking About God's Word . . . Luke 18:35-43

1. At the beginning of the story, a man is sitting by the roadside. Why is he sitting there?
2. Why did a crowd gather?
3. The blind man yelled to Jesus. And Jesus wanted to see who was yelling. What did Jesus say to him?
4. What did the blind man want? Did Jesus grant it?
5. How did the blind man respond to what Jesus did?
6. If you were a person in the story, what would you ask Jesus for?
7. How do we talk to Jesus today?

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like to contribute to the endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff at development@antiochian.org.

Next week

Jesus Loves
Zacchaeus

Coloring page

"I Want To See!"

Thinking About God's Word . . . Luke 18:35-43

1. At the beginning of the story, a man is sitting by the roadside. What is he doing?
2. Why did a crowd gather?
3. The blind man yelled to Jesus. And Jesus wanted to see the one who was yelling. What did Jesus say to him?
4. What did the blind man want?
5. What did Jesus do?
6. What two things did the blind man do after he was healed?
7. If you were a person in the story, what would you ask Jesus for?
8. How do we talk to Jesus today?

Jesus was walking on the road to Jericho. Many people were with Him. When he was almost at Jericho, His group passed by a man who was blind. The man was sitting by the road, begging for money and food.

The blind man asked the people near him why a crowd was passing them. The people said that Jesus from Nazareth was coming.

Right away, the blind man started shouting, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

The people around the blind man told him to be quiet, but he shouted louder, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

When Jesus got closer, He stopped. He asked that the blind man be brought to Him. When the man got to Jesus, Jesus asked, "What would you like me to do for you?"

The blind man answered, "Lord, I want to see!" Jesus said, "Receive your sight. Because you believed in Me, you are well."

Right away, the man could see! He followed Jesus, praising God. All the people who saw it also praised God!

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like to contribute to the endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff at development@antiochian.org.

Next week

Jesus Loves
Zacchaeus

“I Want To See!”

At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging; and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.” And he cried, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” And Jesus stopped, and commanded him to be came near, Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you? He said, Lord, let me receive my sight.” And Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Thinking About God’s Word . . . Luke 18:35-43

1. What was the blind man doing on the roadside? What does that mean?
2. What did the blind man beg Jesus for?
3. What was he saying about Jesus by begging for his mercy?
5. Do you ever ask God for mercy? When?
6. What are you saying about God when you do that?

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like to contribute to the endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff at development@antiochian.org.

Next week

Jesus Calls
Zacchaeus

“I Want to See!”

At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside have mercy on me!” And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but

“What do you want me to do for you? He said, Lord, let me receive my sight.” And Jesus said to begging; and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.” And he cried, “Jesus, Son of David,

he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” And Jesus stopped, and commanded him to be brought to him; and when he came near, Jesus asked him, him, “Receive your sight; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Focus questions

1. Who is following Jesus and surrounding Him?
2. How do they react when the blind man asks for mercy?
3. What does this gospel tell us about the mistakes we can make as followers of Jesus?
4. What does Jesus have some people do for the blind man when Jesus stops to listen to him?
5. What does this tell us about what Jesus asks his followers to do?
6. What can you do this week if someone does something you think is strange?
7. What can you do this week to help bring someone closer to Jesus?

LET US ATTEND!

Next week: Jesus Calls Zacchaeus

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like to contribute to the endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff at development@antiochian.org.

“I Want to See!”

At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside have mercy on me!” And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but

“What do you want me to do for you? He said, Lord, let me receive my sight.” And Jesus said to begging; and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.” And he cried, “Jesus, Son of David,

he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” And Jesus stopped, and commanded him to be brought to him; and when he came near, Jesus asked him, him, “Receive your sight; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Focus questions

1. Who asks Jesus for mercy?
2. How does the crowd react to his cries for mercy?
3. What does the blind man do when the crowd tells him to be quiet?
4. What do the blind man's actions suggest about being a person of faith?
5. What does trusting Jesus sometimes require according to this man's story?
6. What do you think about that idea? Why?

LET US ATTEND!

Next week: Jesus Calls Zachaeus

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like to contribute to the endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff at development@antiochian.org.