

God Will Take Us Back When We've Done Something Wrong

Jesus told this story.

There was a father who had two sons. One day the younger son asked for a lot of money so he could leave home. The father gave him the money, and the son went to a far away place. He made bad friends who liked to live wildly. He wasted all his money and his friends left him. He found a job watching pigs in a muddy field. He was hungry and sad. He was sorry that he had made bad choices. After a long time, he decided to go home and ask to be a servant in his father's house.

On the way home, his father saw him and ran out to greet him. He told his servants, "Give him the best clothes and prepare a feast! My son was lost and now he is found."

Thinking About God's Word . . . Luke 15:11-32

1. The story tells us about a father and two sons. The younger son made a big mistake. What did he do?
2. After he wasted all his money, he found a job. What was his job?
3. When we do something wrong, we feel bad. We say, "I'm sorry" to the person we have hurt.
4. We can also say, "Please forgive me."
5. To forgive is to make things right again.
6. When someone says, "I'm sorry," or "Please forgive me," we should say, "I forgive you."
7. We also say, "Please forgive me" to God. God is like the father in the story. He will forgive us.

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Next week

Jesus Wants Us To
Help Those In Need

God Will Take Us Back When We've Done Something Wrong

One time, our Lord Jesus Christ told a story to teach a lesson.

He told about a man with two sons. One day, the younger son asked his father for a lot of money. He took the money and left his home. He traveled far away and wasted all the money his father gave him.

Soon after that, there was not enough food in the land. So, the younger son got a job feeding pigs. He was so hungry that he wanted to eat the pigs' food. He worked hard, but was still hungry.

As he worked, he remembered that the servants at his father's house worked hard but had plenty of food. He thought to himself, "I will go and say I am sorry to my father for sinning and wasting his money. Then I will ask him to hire me as one of his servants." Right away, he started towards his home.

While he was still far away, his father saw him. He was so glad to see his son that he ran to him and hugged him and kissed him. The son told his father he was sorry for what he had done, and that he did not deserve to be called his father's son anymore.

But the father was so happy to see his son! He asked the servants to dress the young man in the best clothes. He told them to prepare a feast to celebrate the son's return. It was a very happy time in that house!

When the older son came in from the field and found out what was happening, he got angry. His father came out to talk with him, to ask him to join the party. But the older son said, "I have worked hard for you all these years and you didn't give me a party. It's not fair that my brother, who ran off and wasted your money gets a party, now, just for coming back!"

But the father said, "Son, you are always with me and everything that is mine is yours, too. It is right for us to celebrate now, though, because your lost brother has found his way back home, where he belongs!"

Thinking About God's Word . . . Luke 15:11-32

1. How many sons did the man in the story have?
2. At the beginning what did the younger son want from his father?
3. This story is often called the Parable of the Prodigal Son. The word prodigal means wasteful. What did the younger son waste?
4. What did he want to tell his father when he went back home?
5. Was the father happy to see his son when he went back home?
6. Was the older brother happy to see his brother?
7. When we sin, we are like the younger son. God is like the father. He is very happy when we come back to Him and say that we are sorry. He forgives us!

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Next week

Jesus Wants Us To
Help Those In Need

God Will Take Us Back When We've Strayed

The Lord spoke this parable:

"There was a man who had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that falls to me.' And he divided his living between them. Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living. And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want. So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything.

"But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants.' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him,

'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry.

"Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what this meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.' But the son was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, 'Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command; yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost and is found.'"

Thinking About God's Word . . . Luke 15:11-32

1. At the beginning of the parable, what did the younger son want?
2. This story is often called the Parable of the Prodigal Son. The word prodigal means wasteful. What did the younger son waste?
3. What happened to make the younger son think about his father again? What did he do about it?
4. What was the younger son's plan of action? Did it work?
5. How did the father respond when the younger son came home? How about the older son?
6. When we think of ourselves and sin, we are like the younger son, wasting the gifts and things God has given us. What lesson do you think the Lord was teaching us through this parable?

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Next week
God Wants Us To
Help Those In Need

Sunday of the Prodigal Son
Luke 15:11-32

God Will Take Us Back When We've Strayed

The Lord spoke this parable:

"There was a man who had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that falls to me.' And he divided his living between them. Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living. And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want. So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything.

"But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants.' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry.

"Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what this meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.' But the son was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, 'Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command; yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost and is found.'"

Focus questions

1. What does the younger son ask for at the beginning of this gospel?
2. When would he normally have gotten these things?
3. Did this son have any right to ask this of his father?
4. When or how do we say this to God?
5. How does the son's father respond to his request?
6. What does this tell us about his father?
7. What does this suggest about how God responds to our demands?
8. What does this tell us about God?
9. What do you think about this idea?

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

Next week: God Wants Us To Help Those In Need

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Sunday of the Prodigal Son
Luke 15:11-32

God Will Take Us Back When We've Strayed

At that time,

"There was a man who had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that falls to me.' And he divided his living between them. Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living. And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want. So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything.

"But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants.' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry.

"Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what this meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.' But the son was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, 'Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command;

yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!' And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost and is found.'"

Focus questions

1. What does being a son mean? What is required in order to be defined as a son of someone?
2. What does the younger son think it means? The older son?
3. Is the younger son still a son once he leaves his father's land? Why or why not?
4. What does the father's response when the son returns, "he was dead," tell us about this question?
5. What does this suggest about being sons of God? Are we sons of God is we stop serving him?
6. What happens when the son returns to his father? Is he a slave or a son again?
7. What does this suggest about what God does for us when we return to his service?

LET US ATTEND!

Sunday's Gospel
for Children

Next week: God Wants Us To Help Those In Need

You can download audio files of this Gospel at www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.