Building
Our Orthodox Homes as Men: The Foundation and Pillars

Learning and Fellowship

How do I get my foundation right?
What are pillars?

C o m e learn and discuss the every day challenges of building and leading our Orthodox homes as men. We will examine a framework that assists in becoming aware of the constant balancing act men face between vocation, growing in Christ's likeness, and becoming the husbands and fathers we are called to be.

Guest Speaker

Paul Karos is an Orthodox Christian husband and father of three children residing with his family in the Minneapolis area.

He has had a successful professional career in the financial and airline industries and distinguished himself, in the early nineties, as the number one ranked Wall Street airline analyst in the world for five straight years (as quoted in the New York Times).

Paul is active in lay ministries thru his home parish, St. Mary Greek Orthodox Church in Minneapolis. He is involved in men's ministry, leading men's Bible study/discussion groups, as well as individual guidance counseling with assistance by his priests. He also leads a weekly prison Bible study thru the Minnesota Orthodox Prison Ministry. He is a certified counselor for the Prepare/Enrich Marriage Program, and he and his family are active in Orthodox family camps, both in the Twin Cities and at Antiochian Village.
