Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese

Department of Planning and Development

You will be enriched in every way for great generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God; 2 Cor. 9:11

What is the Department of Planning and Development and why was it created?

Planning and Development was created for exactly what the title implies.

It is a new approach to cultivate the tremendous talents which the faithful of this Archdiocese have.

The Antiochian Archdiocese, as the overseer of our people, tries to provide for all of our faithful the expected services needed for this and the next generation. A larger scale approach will help achieve the goals that will enrich our lives.

What does this mean for you?

For donors, it is about leaving a legacy and ensuring that their gifts support the values and causes most important to them.

These might include the various projects needed across our Archdiocese as well as the needs of itself and its clergy. The aim here is to empower the Archdiocese and donors to fulfill their respective missions. A carefully structured, planned giving program reassures potential donors of the wisdom of their decisions.

Our initial endeavor will be focusing on the Antiochian Village. Following is an example of the needs for this jewel of our Archdiocese.

Examples of major projects needed at the Antiochian Village

- » Infirmary / Health Center
- » Additional Cabins
- » Convent
- » Monastery
- » Cultural Center
- » Church Expansion
- » Arts and Crafts Building
- » Sponsorship for Needy Children and College Students

These among the many needs.

How are these dreams and visions accomplished?

The dreams and visions are accomplished through the generosity and help of our philanthropists and humanitarians who believe in the growing need in our North American Archdiocese, in order to reaffirm their faith and rebuild their spiritual lives.
