The Letter to the Romans

Wednesday 7:30-9:30 pm

This course will explore The Letter of St. Paul to the Romans, which is the longest letter in the New Testament. Written to the early Christians in the imperial city of Rome, and, in turn, to the entire Roman Empire, it is considered by many to be among the most challenging epistles in the New Testament due to the major themes of Abraham and Christ, Law and Gospel, the one Gospel for both Jews and Gentiles, and the Jewish rejection of the Gospel. Romans is also the topic of the 2012 Bible Bowl.
