The first system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

But re - ceive me in re - pent - ance; make

The second system of musical notation continues the grand staff format. The melody in the treble clef features a prominent melisma on the word "repentance" with a long horizontal line. The accompaniment in the bass clef provides harmonic support.

me as one of Thy hir - ed ser - vants, O Lord.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. The melody in the treble clef ends with a final cadence. The accompaniment in the bass clef also concludes with a final cadence. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

The musical score is written on six staves in a single system. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The first staff starts with the word "Ison" and a diamond-shaped ornament. The lyrics are: "The bar-ren wil-der-ness thou didst make fer-tile with the streams of thy tears; and by thy deep sigh-ing thou hast giv-en fruit through thy strug-gles a hun-dred-fold. Ac-cord-ing-ly thou hast be-come a star for the u-ni-verse, spark-ling with mir-a-cles. There-fore, O right-eous Fa-ther John, in-ter-cede with Christ God to save our souls." The word "rit." is placed above the staff between the words "John," and "in-ter-cede". There are diamond-shaped ornaments under the notes for "fer-tile", "sigh-ing", "giv-en", "u-ni-verse", "John,", "Christ", and "God".

Ison The bar-ren wil-der-ness thou didst make fer - tile with the
