

JESUS RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

One day, our Lord Jesus and His disciples went to a city called Na'in. Many people followed Him.

When He got near the city gate, a dead man was being carried out in an open coffin. The man's mother and many people from Na'in were following.

The mother was very sad because first her husband had died and now her only son died, too. She did not have anyone left to provide for her.

When Jesus saw the woman, He was sad about what had happened. He told the woman not to cry. Then, He touched the open coffin. The people who were carrying it stood still.

Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!"

The dead man sat up and even started to talk!

Jesus took the young man to his mother. All the people were amazed because of the miracle they saw. They praised and thanked God.

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. When Jesus arrived at the city of Nain, what did He see?
2. What did Jesus say to the mother?
3. What did Jesus do next?
4. What happened after that?
5. What did the people do?
6. How do you think his mother felt?
7. A miracle is something that is amazing. Jesus did many miracles. They showed that He was God. They showed that God loves His people.

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school.
Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

One day, our Lord Jesus and His disciples went to a city called Na'in. Many people followed Him.

When He got near the city gate, a dead man was being carried out in an open coffin. The man's mother and many people from Na'in were following.

The mother was very sad because first her husband had died and now her only son died, too. She did not have anyone left to provide for her.

When Jesus saw the woman, He was sad about what had happened. He told the woman not to cry. Then, He touched the open coffin. The people who were carrying it stood still.

Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!"

The dead man sat up and even started to talk!

Jesus took the young man to his mother.

All the people were amazed because of the miracle they saw. They praised and thanked God.

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. What did Jesus see when He got near the city gate in Na'in?
2. Who was following the open coffin?
3. What do we know about the dead boy's mother?
4. How did Jesus feel about what had happened to the boy?
5. What did Jesus say to the dead boy in his coffin?
6. What happened then?
7. The people were amazed when they saw this. Would you have been amazed? Why or why not?

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

At that time, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and many of his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still.

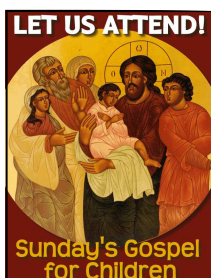

And Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!"

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. Why does Jesus raise the young man from the dead? Who does He do it for?
2. Who is a widow?
3. Do you know anyone who is a widow? Does that person need help from other people to get things done? Who helps her?
4. If the people who normally help the widow you know were no longer there to help her what would she do? How do you think she would feel?
5. After the dead man in the gospel sits up and speaks what does Jesus do? Why do you think He did that?
6. If the young man in the gospel is given life so he can help his mother why do you think Jesus gives us life?
7. Who can you help this week, as a way to thank Jesus for giving you life? What can you do to help that person?

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

Characters: Narrator, Jesus, People

Narrator: At that time, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and many of his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her,

Jesus: Do not weep.

Narrator: And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And Jesus said,

Jesus: Young man, I say to you, arise.

Narrator: And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying,

People: A great prophet has arisen among us! God has visited his people!

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

At that time, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and many of his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still.

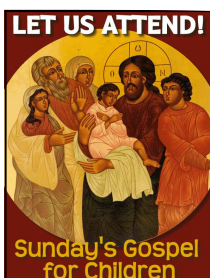

And Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!"

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. What does Jesus do after the young man sits up and speaks? Why do you think he does that?
2. Does Jesus raise the young man from the dead because that is what the young man wanted? Who does he do it for?
3. What does that suggest about what the young man should do with the life he has been given?
4. What do you think about that? Is it fair? Right? Just? Why do you think that?
5. If our lives are a gift from Jesus Christ just like the young man's life was a gift from Jesus, what does that suggest about what we should do with the lives we have been given?
6. What do you think of this idea that our lives aren't ours but are rather a gift to other people?
7. If a person agrees with this idea, what actions would she do? What actions have you seen people do that shows they think their lives are a gift from God for the sake of other people?
8. What action might you do this week to show you think your life is a gift from Jesus to other people?

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.

JESUS RAISES THE WIDOW'S SON

At that time, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and many of his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still.

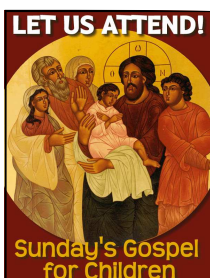

Icon courtesy of Iconographics (www.theologic.com)

And Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!"

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. What does Jesus do after the young man sits up? Why?
2. Does Jesus raise the young man because that is what the young man wanted? Why does Jesus raise the young man from the dead?
3. What does that say about the purpose of the young man's life?
4. What do the people in the crowd do after Jesus raises the dead man? Why do you think they did that?
5. If your life is a gift from Jesus for the sake of another person, who do you think your life is given to? Why do you think that? Do you think your life is always given to one other person or does it change depending on the situation? Explain.
6. What action might you do this week to demonstrate that your life is a gift to another person? What action might you do this week to thank God for the gift of life?
7. Are thanking God for your life and demonstrating that your life is a gift to another person completely different actions or are they related? Explain.

Let Us Attend! is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Department of Christian Education (www.antiochian.org). If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, contact Mrs. Carole Buleza at aodce@antiochian.org. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department.

Pre-12

Visit www.antiochian.org/LetUsAttend for free downloads related to this Gospel story: mp3 audio, coloring sheet, script for readers' theater, and handouts for preschool through high school. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/AODCE.