

St. Emmelia
Orthodox Homeschooling Conference
2014

Antiochian Village
Thursday, March 27, through Sunday, March 30

www.antiochianvillage.org

Speakers ∞

Dr. Christopher Veniamin will deliver the keynote addresses. Other speakers include Lori Peterson Branch, Andrew Kern, Monica Klepac, Barbara Shukin, Donna Smith, and Robert and Angela Weaver.

Children's workshops will be held for ages three and up.

Topics ∞

Presentations are meant to cover the spectrum of interests and concerns of parents from "Homeschooling 101" beginners to veterans who are homeschooling teens. Three tracks are offered at each session, focusing on "big picture" questions, ages and stages, and practical tips and techniques.

Costs ∞

Registration fees, lodging, and meal packages are offered as economically as possible, with a special pricing cap so families will pay food expenses for their four oldest family members only. Register before February 27 for an early-bird price!

More opportunities ∞

In addition to the sessions, which cover homeschooling topics from theological and practical, general and specific perspectives, attendees will participate in the services of the Church and have beautiful opportunities to experience works from photographer Jocelyn Mathewes, artist Leila Chokheli, illustrator Niko Chocheli, and author Chrissi Hart. Family photo sessions with Jocelyn Mathewes are also offered.

Come and see...

Details about speakers, topics, costs, schedules, and staying at Antiochian Village are available online at the Antiochian Village website under "Upcoming Events."

Come and see how this experience can bless your family's homeschooling journey.

www.antiochianvillage.org