

Jesus Casts Out Demons

One day,

our Lord Jesus met a man who had demons. He did not wear clothes. He lived in the tombs. The demons made him strong and not safe to be with.

When the man saw Jesus, the demons made him yell, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, God's Son? Leave me alone!"

Jesus asked the man what his name was. The man said, "Legion." (A legion is a large group or army.) He said this was his name because so many demons were in him.

Jesus told the demons to leave the man. He told them to go into a nearby herd of pigs. The demons came out of the man and went into the pigs. The whole herd went rushing down the steep bank into the lake and they drowned.

The people watching the pigs saw what had happened. They ran to town and told other people. These people went to see Jesus. They saw the man who had demons sitting at Jesus' feet. He was wearing clothes. He was talking in a normal voice. This made the people very afraid. They asked Jesus to leave.

As Jesus got into a boat to leave, the man begged to come along. He wanted to be with Jesus. But Jesus told him to go home and tell all that God had done for him.

Thinking About God's Word . . .

1. Who did Jesus meet? What was wrong with him?
2. Where did Jesus tell the demons that were in the man to go? Did the demons obey?
3. Jesus made the man well again. What did the man want to do? What did Jesus tell him to do?
4. Tell about something that God has done for you.

The Gospel Program is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese Department of Christian Education. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has also established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, and if you would like to contribute to the Endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff, at development@antiochian.org.

Next week

The Raising of
Jairus' Daughter

Jesus Casts Out Demons

One day,

One day our Lord Jesus met a man who had demons. He did not wear clothes. He lived in the tombs. The demons made him strong and not safe to be with.

When the man saw Jesus, the demons made him yell, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, God's Son? Leave me alone!"

Jesus asked the man what his name was. The man said, "Legion." (A legion is a large group or army.) He said this was his name because so many demons were in him.

Jesus told the demons to leave the man. He told them to go into a nearby herd of pigs. The demons came out of the man and went into the pigs. The whole herd went rushing down the steep bank into the lake and they drowned.

The people watching the pigs saw what had happened. They ran to town and told other people. These people went to see Jesus.

They saw the man who had demons sitting at Jesus' feet. He was wearing clothes. He was talking in a normal voice. This made the people very afraid. They asked Jesus to leave.

As Jesus got into a boat to leave, the man begged to come along. He wanted to be with Jesus. But Jesus told him to go home and tell all that God had done for him.

Thinking About God's Word . . .

1. Who did Jesus meet? What was wrong with him?
2. Where did Jesus tell the demons that were in the man to go? Did the demons obey?
3. Jesus made the man well again. What did the man want to do? What did Jesus tell him to do?
4. Tell about something that God has done for you.

The Gospel Program is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese Department of Christian Education. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has also established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, and if you would like to contribute to the Endowment, so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff, at development@antiochian.org.

Next week

The Raising of
Jairus' Daughter

The Gadarene Demoniac

At that time,

Jesus arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. And as he stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes, and he lived not in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me." For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. [For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.] Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. And they begged Jesus not to command them to depart into the abyss.

Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them leave. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed with demons was healed.

Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked Jesus to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so he got into a boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with Jesus; but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare all the God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming through the whole city all that Jesus had done for him.

Thinking About God's Word . . . Luke 8:26-39

1. What was unusual about the man Jesus met at the country of the Gadarenes? What did he do when he met Jesus?
2. Why did the man say his name was Legion?
3. What did the demons beg Jesus about? Did He grant them their wish?
4. Why do you think the people who came were afraid? What did they ask Jesus to do?
5. Why do you think the man wanted to go with Jesus? What did Jesus tell him to do instead?
6. Tell someone about something that Jesus has done for you.

The Gospel Program is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese Department of Christian Education. We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has also established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, and if you would like to contribute to the Endowment, so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff, at development@antiochian.org.

Next week

The Raising of
Jairus' Daughter

21st Sunday after Pentecost
Luke 8:26-39

Grades: Middle School
October 21, 2007

The Gadarene Demoniac

At that time,

Jesus arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. And as he stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes, and he lived not in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me." For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. [For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.] Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said,

"Legion"; for many demons had entered him. And they begged Jesus not to command them to depart into the abyss.

Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them leave. Then the demons came out of the man entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed with demons was healed.

Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked Jesus to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so he got into a boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with Jesus; but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare all that God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming through the whole city all that Jesus had done for him.

Focus questions

1. What does the man do after Jesus sends the demons away?
2. Why do you think he does this?
3. What might this tell us about what we are meant to do?
4. What can you do this week to "sit at the feet of Jesus" like the man in this gospel?

Next week: The Raising of Jairus' Daughter

The Gospel Program is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese Department of Christian Education.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has also established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, and if you would like to contribute to the Endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff, at development@antiochian.org.

21st Sunday after Pentecost
Luke 8:26-39

Grades: High School
October 21, 2007

The Gadarene Demoniac

At that time,

Jesus arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. And as he stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes, and he lived not in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me." For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. [For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.] Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. And they begged Jesus not to command them to depart into the abyss.

Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them leave. Then the demons came out of the man entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed with demons was healed.

Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked Jesus to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so he got into a boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with Jesus; but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare all the God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming through the whole city all that Jesus had done for him.

Focus questions

1. What does the formerly demon possessed man beg Jesus to let him do?
2. Why do you think he wants to be with Jesus?
3. What do you think he knows about Jesus after being healed?
4. What does Jesus tell the man to do?
5. Why do you think Jesus sent the man home?
6. What does this suggest about how we can spend our time?
7. What has Jesus done for you? How can you share this with other people?

Next week: The Raising of Jairus' Daughter

The Gospel Program is published by the Antiochian Orthodox Archdiocese Department of Christian Education.

We gratefully acknowledge support from the Order of St. Ignatius which funds, in part, the work of the Department. The Archdiocese has also established an endowment for the Department of Christian Education. If you would like information on our present programs and future initiatives, and if you would like to contribute to the Endowment so we may continue our ministry, please contact Ms. Ruth Ann Skaff, at development@antiochian.org.